My comparison	Place 1	Place 2	Place 3	Place 4
Actual home, entrance and private space
Dependable net income or funded interval
Recurring essentials and amount left
Named workplace or confirmed teaching site
Each person's useful independent day
School, care and help by agreement
Whole journey and later return
Hartford contact and intended visit costs
Unrecoverable transition spending
Deposits, tied-up money and available reserve
Gain, compromise and next decision

Keep two to four realistic versions and compare the same needs. Put each person's purpose beside the address and whole month. Record the source and date for confirmed terms; give an unknown its next inquiry. Keep unrecoverable spending, refundable or tied-up money and the reserve separate. Test an ordinary day and a less convenient season before keeping, revising or setting aside the version.
